The National Falcon News

December 2015

Cover: July 9, 2015, Oakland Beach Cruise

On a nice summer Thursday evening, a wide array of model years, colors, and styles of our wonderful birds flew in formation down the Rhode Island roadways. The cruise started at the National Convention's host hotel, the Crowne Plaza in Warwick, and had locals taking notice as the Falcons passed by on their way to their beachside destination. The grass field across from Oakland Beach, shown on our cover, overflowed with Falcons.

Oakland Beach is on Greenwich Bay, a tributary of Narragansett Bay. The views of the bay and the bridges in the distance were spectacular. Several restaurants within walking distance of the beach greeted convention goers. Iggy's was popular for chowder, clam cakes and ice cream while the Top of the Bay Restaurant had great food and drinks and offered a great view from its second floor balcony.

This issue is filled with a recap and photos of the events, the Falcons, and the great people who attended the Falcon Club of America's 2015 National Convention.

Many thanks to Pete Graves (FCA #15295), Tom Rider (FCA #1571), Lauren Gabel and Kevin Gabel (FCA #5403) for their terrific photos featured throughout the magazine.

President's Message: Cliff McKay

My oh my, how time does fly. Can it really be the end of another year? It's nearly the night before Christmas and I have yet to put those sleigh bells on my Falcon! I'm hoping for a beautiful Christmas day to fly my Falcon about town and make a few last minute deliveries. Then it will time to get it tucked away for the winter.

Hopefully, your birds will be getting some well-deserved TLC this winter. You may have already tucked your Falcons in their nests for the colder days ahead.

It's that extra special time of year to be thankful, so thanks again to the Northeast Chapter and the other contributors for the work they put into the 2015 National Convention in Warwick, Rhode Island. Thanks again also to all the chapters that hosted regionals in 2015. Many kind thanks to our FCA Store gals for all their work each and every year. Thanks to all our FCA officers and their families for keeping us all organized as well as promoting the camaraderie we all enjoy at FCA events.

I highly recommend that you start planning your trip to next year's 2016 Nationals in Baraboo, Wisconsin. Check out the 2016 Nationals website, take a look at what the Wisconsin Dells area has to offer, and send us your suggestions. Remember that the earlier you send the hosting chapters your event registration and make hotel reservations, the better they can plan and fund the events for us all to enjoy. Contributions from other chapters also go a long way in helping with the success of the national event.

Please make sure that you check out the Technical Articles and other club documents now available online on our FCA website. New offerings have been added by our experienced contributing authors. The password—FCAmemberIGS—is still valid to gain access.

Take your kids and grandkids—or your friend's kids and grandkids—to car shows and when you can, help them get into a Falcon of their own. Maybe a "Christmas Falcon" or that much needed part found under the tree would be an ideal gift for those that have been extra good this past year.

Get out there and "shop 'til you drop," eat way too many homemade treats, and don't forget to cherish the time with others. If you can find a way to send thanks to any of our troops still overseas, I'm sure they would appreciate hearing from you.

Take care and enjoy your 2015 Christmas season, have lots of fun with your families, friends, and Falcons. Your FCA Store has great presents for Santa to deliver, so place those orders early in order to get things under the tree on time. Have a wonderful Christmas holiday season crusin' in those fabulous Falcons as your local weather permits.

2015 Nationals—Warwick, Rhode Island

2015 Nationals Winners' Circle

The Northeast Chapter went above and beyond hosting the 36th Annual FCA National Convention. More than 175 Falcons gathered in the parking lot of the Warwick, Rhode Island Crowne Plaza hotel on July 9th, 2015. This remarkable scene marked the beginning of a terrific three-day event. Falcon Club members gathered from 33 states and Canada—as well as Israel and Ireland—for one common purpose, their love of the Ford Falcon.

Rick Bowes, president of the Northeast Chapter along with his wife, Christine, co-organized the Convention. Multiple volunteers were seen welcoming attendees to the Registration Area and Hospitality Room as well as guiding and directing guests as Activity and Event Coordinators. Behind the scenes, Northeast Chapter members were hauling water, delivering food, answering questions, and doing so many other jobs necessary in putting on an event of this magnitude.

Whether you attended the Factory Five Racing tour, Ladies Tea, Jonathan Edwards Winery tour, Tasca Ford tour, Newport Mansions tour, or sat admiring the Falcons in the hotel parking lot, you were treated to the history, the wonderful sights and the experiences of beautiful Rhode Island.

Try out some Rhode Island trivia.

We know Rhode Island lays claim as the smallest U.S. state. But, did you know it is the second most densely populated state, behind only New Jersey? Because several bays and inlets make up much of its total area, its official nickname is "The Ocean State." Historically known as The Colony of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, it was a colony of English settlers founded in 1636 by Roger Williams, a theologian in exile from religious persecution in the approximately 12 miles south of downtown Providence and 63 miles southwest of Boston, Massachusetts, it has witnessed major events in American history. The city has a vast array of rich military, nautical, and industrial history. Two of its most famous citizens are Revolutionary War General Nathaniel Greene and actor James Woods.

"We are amazed at the number and variety of Falcons."

—The Margottas of Scranton, Pennsylvania
at their first National Convention

Factory Five Racing treat group to a tour.

Thursday morning in Warham, Massachusetts, guests were treated to a Factory Five Racing tour. They are an American automobile company that designs and manufactures assembly kits for replicas and sports cars.

The company's vision includes, "We are car guys. We eat, sleep, and dream about cars. Our company, Factory Five Racing, is the result of this shared obsession. For us, Factory Five Racing is the culmination of a dream. Out the doors of our company come not only great performance products, but also our vision of what a company can stand for and what it can accomplish when guided by principles."

Tasca Ford welcomes members.

Tasca Ford welcomed a group for a tour of their facility and were told a brief history of their company. Carl Tasca fired up his Mustang Cobra Jet for them.

Tasca Automotive Group was founded in 1943 by Bob Tasca, Sr. In 1953 Bob opened the original Tasca Ford in Bristol, Rhode Island. One year later, Hurricane Carol destroyed the facility and it relocated to East Providence. This was the birthplace of the Tasca Racing program and many historic muscle cars such as the Cobra Jet, Tasca Street Boss, and Mystery race cars. The family business became the second largest Ford dealership in the world in the 1960s. They currently have multiple locations in Rhode Island, Connecticut, and Massachusetts.

The Club Store offered an assortment of merchandise.

If you were in search of hats or shirts or even a bag to keep all your goodies in, the Club Store had them and more. Bonnie had an assortment of items for sale, a helpful smile, and a listening ear to help with whatever members were looking to purchase.

Ladies have their "Tea by the Sea."

Thursday at high noon, the ladies gathered for strawberry scones with Devonshire cream, sandwiches and pastries at the annual Ladies' Tea. Hosted by Patty Lindberg, it was a fun time with many participants decked out in fancy hats and celebratory attire.

The speaker for the event represented "Little Pink Houses of Hope," an organization that supports patients being treated and/or in recovery from breast cancer along with their families. They are given, free of all costs, a one week vacation to enjoy some family time and to relax and recuperate from their treatments. From the proceeds of raffle ticket sales, the 50/50 drawing, and donations, the Northeast Chapter were able to give $1,000 to this wonderful organization. After Nationals, the chapter received a thank you letter from Pink Houses and a phone call expressing thanks from the woman whose family benefited from their donation.

Car Cruise to Oakland Beach

Thursday's events culminated with an evening car cruise to Oakland Beach on Greenwich Bay. See our "On The Cover" section on page two for more information on this event.

Jonathan Edwards Winery Tour

On Friday afternoon a group of thirty were treated to a personalized experience at the Jonathan Edwards Winery in the rolling hills of North Stonington, Connecticut.

Newport Mansions Tour

Also on Friday, two full busses of 80 tourists left the hotel bound for Newport, home of many Gilded Age mansions that once were the summer playground for socialite families with names like Astor and Vanderbilt. A stop at the famed Breakers Mansion found many gasping at the opulence of the 70-room summer getaway home of Cornelius Vanderbilt II and its beautifully landscaped gardens.

Talk, Talk, Talk

In tents, on lawn chairs, on blankets, or on tailgates... you could find new acquaintances and old friends sitting around, catching up, and talking about their Falcons.

Pizza Party and Ice Cream Social

Finishing the day, a Pizza Party was held, sponsored by Ron and Rosie Wilson of FalconParts.com and Naomi Henderson. It was catered by Casserta's Pizza on Federal Hill in Providence. The pizza must have been good because 40 pizzas disappeared in less than 20 minutes. The hotel provided ice cream sundaes for guests. What a nice refreshing end to a warm summer day full of activities.

Ballots in hand, the Car Show didn't disappoint.

Polishing cloths came out as did the sun on Saturday morning and a beautiful day ensued for the Falcons to be put on show. Lined up in their categories, they reflected magnificently the day's bright sun. Members and guests alike enjoyed a great display of cars.

Valve Cover races delight.

A valve cover, four wheels, and a little ingenuity can make for a lot of fun, especially when it comes to Falcon lovers.

These little racing mobiles come in all colors and include some very creative designs. The racers, young and old(er), can get pretty creative with their adornments.

Award winners recognized.

Over 350 people attended this year's banquet and awards ceremony. As we enjoyed our meals, we were treated to a wonderful slide show of the award winners. As the National Convention came to a close we said "so long" to many of our friends and to our wonderful hosts, the Northeast Chapter. They treated us well, put on a good show, and showed us a part of their home state. Thank you to all who worked hard to make it a successful event.

See you next year!

Make your reservations now for next year's convention in the beautiful Wisconsin Dells, which will be hosted by the Northland, Raptor and Lake Michigan Chapters. For more information, go to 2016FalconConvention.com. Hope to see you there, as Cliff would say, "for more family, friends, and Falcons!"

FCA President Cliff McKay and Vice President Mary Wagner are all smiles at the banquet as the annual gathering came to a close.
